This is a stunning low set brick family home nestled in the picturesque town of Deloraine. Boasting an impressive 5 bedrooms and 2 contemporary bathrooms, this modern, 4-year-old property provides the ultimate sanctuary for growing families seeking a stylish and spacious abode. Step inside and you'll be greeted by a large open-plan living area that flows seamlessly onto a large undercover deck with breathtaking mountain views. The stylish, spacious kitchen features timber look flooring, wall cupboards and a breakfast bar, perfect for enjoying your morning coffee while taking in the stunning vista from the kitchen window. The master suite features an exquisite ensuite bathroom, complete with a large open shower, as well as generous built-in wardrobes. The main bathroom is a true sanctuary, boasting a luxurious bath that promises relaxation and indulgence. With great storage throughout and built-in wardrobes in all bedrooms, this home is designed with family life in mind. The heat pump ensures year-round comfort, while the double lockup garage with remote offers secure parking for two vehicles. Set on a substantial 1071 square metre fenced block, this property offers a fantastic backyard for children to play and explore. The large undercover deck is the perfect space for alfresco dining and entertaining, with the mountains providing an idyllic backdrop. Peaceful, semi-rural lifestyle, with modern convenience and style. Don't miss the opportunity to secure this slice of paradise for your family.
