Perfectly positioned in the highly sought coastal strip of Largs Bay this character Bungalow is a perfect blend of old meets new! With sea views from the street, this location is hard to beat! A flexible floor plan with up to 4 bedrooms that can accommodate family living as well as single professionals. Upon entry to the Lobby there is the warmth of exposed timber flooring along with entry to the formal living and dining room with feature glass doors separating the 2 rooms. The formal living room has gas fire and formal dining with split system heating and cooling. The modern kitchen offers gas cook top and plenty of storage and bench space. There is an open plan dining room along with a sun-drenched living/dining that runs across the rear of the home. With outdoor pergola for alfresco entertaining and carport down the side of the home with room to accommodate several vehicles along with a lock up powered garage. Beautiful garden settings in the front and rear which is maintained all year round with Bore water. Pets are negotiable.
