Immersed in the tranquillity of its inspirational surrounds, number 36 Heritage Drive Roleystone is unquestionably in one of the most spectacular locations you will find anywhere in the Perth Hills. With the site having been specifically chosen by its original owners for its sun-drenched True North orientation, the uninterrupted 270 degree vistas are simply sublime! Delivering a lifestyle of absolute harmony, this phenomenal property with its cinematic backdrop is sure to enrich the soul and excite the senses. Reminiscing a country lane, the private driveway leading to the modest circa late 90's constructed homestead sporting a unique and relaxed floor plan. Accommodation comprising of three generous bedrooms in the main residence, together with separate totally self contained studio for additional requirements. Gracefully occupying some nearly 1.5 hectares of predominantly rich pasture this prized property is adorned with a multitude of stunning mature deciduous trees. A delightful property and a pleasure to present for sale, you will most certainly be impressed.
