Welcome to 36 Moreton Terrace, Beachmere - a delightful escape nestled in a sleepy fishing village just a short drive from the highway. As you meander down a winding country road, you'll discover multiple fishing spots and scenic vistas along the way. Beachmere is a treasure trove of beaches and canals, perfect for swimming, walking, running, and playing. With multiple boat ramps, it's a haven for boating enthusiasts. This home enjoys an enviable location, with the local school and kindergarten at the end of the street and a bus stop directly across the road. Everything you need is within walking distance, including beaches, parks, picnic spots, an outdoor gym, a new ninja park for kids, a skate bowl, the bowls club, a petrol station, and a variety of local shops and restaurants. Convenience is key with a post office, markets, hairdressers, childcare centers, an enclosed dog park, the local tavern, fish and chip shops, Domino's, and four doctor's surgeries nearby. Plus, every Friday, a mobile library bus arrives, offering activities for all ages. Beachmere also boasts a family footy club and an indoor gym, just a five-minute drive away, and hidden pristine white beaches adorned with driftwood and beautiful artwork. Situated two streets from the ocean with a serene view of trees across the road, this property presents a unique opportunity in a high-demand rental market. The charming Old Queenslander home features polished wooden floors, spacious rooms, and ample off-street parking on a large corner block. A shed and mostly fenced yard with a three-car concrete driveway provide additional convenience. The well-maintained gardens, shaded by palm trees, and two verandas offer delightful outdoor spaces. Inside, the massive main room and cozy lounge room next to the kitchen, with French doors opening to a private veranda, create a welcoming and comfortable living environment. Don't miss the chance to secure this enchanting property in Beachmere. Embrace the coastal lifestyle and make 36 Moreton Terrace your new home today!
