Vary rarely will you find a home that represents such great value! This large family home is in great condition and benefits from a breathtaking view over the Jindalee Golf Course. The manicured rear gardens are perfect for your family BBQ's to spill onto from the large covered rear deck. The newly renovated kitchen overlooks the rear garden and is the perfect size for a large family as multiple people can be cooking at the same time with ample bench space from the 40mm Caesarstone benchtops. Five spacious upstairs bedrooms are complete with walk in robes and ceiling fans while a sixth bedroom or office gives this home terrific flexibility. Downstairs the large formal living area and dining space is spacious and has great natural light as well as air-conditioning. Fully fenced and with lots of room for kids to play with their dog this home is perfect for a young family or multiple generations looking to live in harmony. Full lockup double garage and solid brick construction means this home is sure to be a sensible and low maintenance investment for your family. The fantastic location is walking distance to Centenary High School, Jindalee State School, shops, restaurants, buses, Jindalee Swimming pool, DFO, Homemaker Centre, Mount Ommaney Shopping Centre, and access to the Freeway.
