SOLD by Miles Real Estate. An inner-city lifestyle for lovers of space, style and nature is offered in the best position possible with this substantial corner townhouse and huge landscaped garden set right beside parkland at the end of a cul-de-sac. A peaceful bushland setting with its native trees and birdlife is just outside the door and viewed from every level of this stunning three bedroom, 2.5 bathroom residence that directly adjoins the 25-kilometre long Darebin Creek trail. A striking tri-level profile with private street entry reveals a beautiful contemporary interior filled with east and north-facing light complemented by double-glazing, split-system heating/cooling, security alarm and internal two-car basement garage with storage cage. Backdropped by an expansive courtyard garden with an entertainment terrace and treed parkland, a spacious ground-floor layout features fabulous living and dining areas both with sliding doors, a smart gourmet kitchen with Smeg appliances and stone benchtops plus a powder room and a full-size laundry. Superb accommodation complemented by a large balcony includes two mid-level bedrooms with mirror built-in robes, a fully-tiled bathroom (separate shower and bathtub) and a top-floor main suite with its own streamlined bathroom and mirror built-in robes. Also offers video intercom and polished hardwood floorboards. Live large and endlessly entertain in tranquil natural environs with this remarkably rare opportunity offering great access to Thornbury's sought-after amenities including cafes, shopping, public transport and schools.
