This apartment is located on the 36th floor. It perched nearly atop of this iconic building with incredible views across Port Philip Bay, the Yarra Rive and a constant array of amazing sunsets. Discover spacious open-plan living and dining underscored by the L-shaped kitchen with popular island bench. Ample storage space is a feature of the kitchen with stone-finished bench top, Miele kitchen appliance and a full-sized dishwasher. The spacious main bedroom has a private balcony to take advantage of the views while the second bedroom has a delightful picture window framing the Yarra, across to Williamstown and the Bay. Both have ample built-in robes. This near new apartment offers a luxurious style of living on prestigious Collins Street. In a premium location close to free public transport, District Docklands, Costco and Southern Cross Station, the property provides an opportunity for the perfect candidate to take on board what the fast-paced city life has to offer!
