The moment you step into this wonderful home you are bound to be left speechless by the charming presentation and preserved beauty found throughout. Oozing appeal with soaring high ceilings, vj walls, fretwork and original design elements throughout, this property ties in the new with the old seamlessly. On 10 acres of land on minutes to Kingaroy, this property provides a unique country lifestyle. Modern touches seamlessly blend with the home's heritage, evident in the beautifully renovated kitchen, mixing high end appliances and traditional country charm. The bathroom has had the same thoughtful renovations keeping period pieces with modern conveniences. There are 4 bedrooms, 2 having built-in wardrobes, the main having a walk-in robe that could convert to ensuite. Flexible living zones include a formal lounge that adjoins the dining room and there is a separate sitting room at the rear of the home. Throughout the home ceilings fans, air conditioning, wood fire all in keep with contemporary living. Underneath the home is all built in with a separate storage area and a large rumpus room for additional living and entertaining space. Around the grounds water is supplied from the 4 x rainwater tanks that are interconnected, approx. 6Kw solar system, 9m x 6m shed with power and wrap around carport, tool shed, fenced house yard, fully fenced property, as well as a fully fenced house yard, 2 dams, established gardens.
