

366 Irishtown Road, Irishtown, Tas 7330

Sold House

Tuesday, 5 September 2023

366 Irishtown Road, Irishtown, Tas 7330

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 5

Area: 4047 m2

Type: House

Betty Kay

Contact agent

This property offers a great country lifestyle, with no immediate neighbors and enough room for a family to enjoy this special property. The magnificent entertainment room has a wood-fired old fashion stove and pitta oven, and a free-standing wood heater this is the second living area Of the home. The home has a queen-size bedroom off the garage for guests or teenagers. The garden and lawn area is fully enclosed for dogs or children to play safely and a great sheltered verandah area to sit out of the sun. There is a double bedroom with robe upstairs in the attic, laundry with shower and 2nd toilet. Sliding glass doors open to the main living, and a new kitchen and dining area has a wall-mounted heat pump. The main bathroom has a corner spa bath and toilet. The main bedroom opens to a large sunroom catching the morning sunshine. The huge double roller shed would be any person's delight with so much room for storage. There is a smaller workshop and garden shed, an enclosed chook yard, a great variety of fruit trees. This is a property with a mixture of the "old & new" and the property is immaculately presented. Hothouse for growing your own veggies. The garage on the home has been converted to add to the entertainment area. Only 4 km from Smithton.