Auction Guide $1,790,000

Perched high on the riverside escarpment, this tri-level home commands panoramic views across the Richmond Lowlands to the distant city skyline. Overlooking the meandering Hawkesbury River, the family residence promises a tranquil lifestyle amidst breathtaking scenery. Inside, the home's thoughtful split-level design maximises space and views, as evidenced by the living and games room's vaulted, timber-lined ceilings. The top level houses a country-style kitchen with an island and stone benchtops, a meals area framed by a large bay window, and a living space leading out to the elevated balcony. The top floor also hosts the main bedroom with a spa ensuite, built-in robe, and another bay window that offers serene river vistas. The ground floor has three additional bedrooms with built-ins, a three-way bathroom, and a third living space, ensuring privacy and family comfort. Outside, the property reveals numerous balconies and outdoor spaces, including a large timber entertaining deck and a full-width patio. A double lock-up garage, three covered carports, and a large paved driveway enhance the home's functionality and practical needs. Boasting a prominent street frontage in a coveted area just minutes from North Richmond, the property offers a rare blend of rural allure and urban convenience, perfect for those seeking a peaceful yet connected lifestyle.
