Palm Springs Designer Villa With Wow Factor Walk to Pacific Fair, surfing beaches and Broadbeach from this newly-completed villa that raises the bar in a dazzling display of modern architecture, interior design and craftsmanship. Jayson Pate Design executes the vision for 'Carmel Springs', a two-level residence with four bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a sunny alfresco area overlooking an inviting plunge pool. Mature palms, cacti and dry stacked stone evoke Palm Springs cool from the street that carries through inside where a unique curation of finishes and functionality unfolds. Large black-frame arch windows are an architectural highlight that distinguishes the front and rear facades, while curved elements, custom illuminated basins, pendant lighting and bespoke wallpaper infuse pops of personality. A curved island bench dressed in textured render, half-round battens and brushed brass achieve a sophisticated tone in the kitchen, while spacious open-plan living and dining integrates seamlessly with the outdoors. Two generous upper-level bedrooms enjoy two-way access to a memorable main bathroom, a living room and study nook, while a hotel-style master suite with divine ensuite bathroom and walk-in robe can be closed off in its own wing.
