New to the market is this solid brick 3 bedroom home on a great size allotment, measuring approximately 1959m², in a wonderful central location of Penola. The home is immaculately maintained, and you will be impressed at the easy living this home offers. The stunning new bathroom and separate shower room offers flexibility in the mornings when everyone is busily getting ready for the day. The original kitchen has lots of storage, has a large electric oven with 5 electric hot plates, and overlooks the spacious meals area which leads into the commodious light and bright lounge/dining area. With living spaces overlooking the gorgeous garden setting from all angles, it gives the home a sense of style and seclusion. The three bedrooms are all of good size, have ceiling fans and timber floors and bedroom 1 has an impressive wall to wall, ceiling to floor built-in robe that stores and hides everything including a TV! Some of the features of this superb property include ducted reverse cycle air conditioning, beautiful established and well maintained gardens, bore, pop up sprinklers in the front, chook house, rainwater, plenty of shedding and double carport. This home is so well designed with so many extraordinary storage ideas that an inspection is the best way to appreciate and explore this great family home.
