If these walls could speak, they'd unveil decades of cherished memories from the family who've called this house home for the past 70 years! Nestled on a spacious 2023m² (double) block, this charming 1950's brick residence boasts 2 bedrooms, a cosy sleepout (3rd bedroom), 2 bathrooms, separate dining, two living areas, and a delightful sitting room. Outside, a breathtaking established garden adorned with English and native trees captivates with its seasonal beauty. Positioned on the elevated side of town, a brief stroll leads to the main street or picturesque walking trails around Tumbarumba. I warmly extend an invitation for you to explore this distinctive property, poised to welcome its next family and continue the legacy of love and life.
