Are you looking for a brick home in a quiet location that offers a little extra room? Look no further than 37 Burnside Street, Moe. Featuring spacious open plan living, three bedrooms, and great car storage this home has plenty of room for the whole family, this home also boasts a fantastic yard with a covered outdoor space and views to grazing land. From the double carport, enter a cosy lounge with an open fireplace. This adjoins a formal dining or office space. The kitchen has been updated with fresh, white cabinets, dishwasher and gas electric cooking. A flexible space beside the kitchen presents as an opportunity for a second living or dining room as well as access to the rear yard. Three good sized bedrooms, all with built in robes are situated at the rear of the home and utilise the central bathroom. A double length garage at the back of the 612 sqm (approx) allotment has been partially lined and would make a great hobby room or teenage retreat. Situated approximately 3km from the Moe town centre with pre and primary schools available and an equal distance to the township of Newborough, offering secondary school and indoor/outdoor sporting facilities, this property would make an ideal first or family home.
