Positioned above Whale Beach, with panoramic amphitheatre views spanning the beach, ocean and surf, this contemporary home offers the ultimate in weekender/holiday indulgence or year-round living. Designed by architect Shahe Simonian of Zananan Architecture Studios, the home has been built with a rich and layered aesthetic, resulting in a residence that maximises the views from every level. Embracing the sunlight in winter whilst beckoning cooling sea breezes in summer, the residence offers a tangible sense of relaxation, both indoors and alfresco, offering a home of leisurely extravagance for all seasons. - The huge open plan living, dining and kitchen enjoy spectacular views of Whale Beach and the ocean- Opening beyond vast glass doors, ocean views are also enjoyed in the protected north facing courtyard, complete with BBQ and built-in fireplace for year-round ambience- There's extensive use of timber, sandstone and travertine, creating height and interest at every turn- Occupying the entire top floor, the master retreat is a gorgeous indulgence. Walk in dressing room with robes, beautiful bathroom has egg-shell bath plus marble floors and private balcony, in addition to the private deck at the front facing the beach and ocean- The lower ground floor includes 3 double bedrooms, each with built-in robes, the main bathroom, fabulous wine cellar, laundry and the plant room to house the modern workings of the home- There's internal access from the double garage, a guest powder room, as well as the media room also with a fireplace, all on the main entrance and living level, completing the functionality of this exquisite residence.
