Are you a purchaser looking to break in to the market to enjoy all this delightful Village has to offer? Well look no further than this delightful family residence. Situated just over the Bridge, away from the tourist crowds but still close enough to easily stroll to the Riverfront, the General Store, Richmond Arms or the many other delights within the Village itself, this one level home is set on a large, level 800m² block surrounded by quality property and lovely neighbours, complete with single garage/workshop, adjoining carport, secure parking and yard ideal for kids or pets. Stepping inside, the crisp and clean interior has been fully repainted throughout with new carpets also & an abundance of windows allow plenty of northerly sun and natural light which accentuates the sense of space of this already generous floorplan. Spacious separate living/dining space with woodheater leads through to the large kitchen and family area, which in turn leads directly through to the backyard and huge undercover entertaining area. Separate laundry and separate wc are complemented by the renovated family bathroom, and all three bedrooms are well sized with inbuilt wardrobing, plus lovely garden views from every space. Mere minutes to the well regarded Schools and local facilities of picturesque Richmond, and impeccably presented by the existing owners this most appealing property is ready to just move in whilst also offering fantastic potential for you to add your personal decorating touches. A property certainly worthy of your attention!
