Set on an easy-care allotment in the coveted Victoria Cross Estate, this double-storey home introduces impressive dimensions, loads of natural light, quality appointments and a layout focused on all ages living. Step inside to discover a gallery hallway leading past a ground floor main bedroom with ensuite to the expansive open plan living-meals. Finished in good-looking, hardwearing engineered timber floors, it integrates a stainless-steel equipped kitchen with plenty of storage solutions and a breakfast bench ready for preparation or conversation! Sliding doors access a decked entertainment area that extends the living outdoors during the summer. The first floor offers two generously proportioned, robed bedrooms sharing a deluxe bathroom with a free-standing bath. Further highlights include a European laundry, multiple split-system climate control units for year-round comfort and a single remote garage with the all-weather convenience and security of internal access. An easy walk to the local amenities that underscore this highly sought location, the cafes, supermarket and dining options of Macleod Village, the station, YMCA, Harry Pottage Park, Macleod College (P-12)...it's a perfect blend of lifestyle and location!
