How amazing is this home and land? Tucked up on a large 1.5 hectare block not visible from the main road of Port Hills, sits this absolutely divine country style modern home. The home is so welcoming and humble with a secured yard around the house for the children or pets. The 3 bedroom 2 bathroom home is practically in brand new condition with it being fully renovated inside and out, there is not a thing left to do apart from move in and make some beautiful memories at this spacious and divine tranquil home. The open plan living and kitchen space is very surprising with the large kitchen running through to a favorable butlers pantry, the doubled glazed windows throughout the home offering all day sun. The home offers a front and rear deck that has plenty of space for the barbeque and outdoor furniture undercover. Brand new double garage and single carport. Fully fenced with solar panels and water tanks. Call for an inspection today.
