The epitome of coastal design meeting country living. Nestled opposite a lush leafy reserve with convenient pathway access through Mick Ryan Park, it offers a serene escape within reach of Milton's vibrant boutique shopping and cafe strip. Step into a world of relaxation with white-washed exteriors that seamlessly blend with a soft, white internal palette. This summer house captures the essence of coastal living, providing a tranquil haven where you can enjoy refreshing coastal breezes. A stylish white kitchen is a culinary delight, featuring a mottled tile splashback, walk-in pantry, 900mm appliances, and an expansive island bench with 20mm stone counter tops. The open plan living area boasts engineered timber look flooring, flowing seamlessly to the alfresco dining space under the main roofline. Outdoor entertaining is a joy as you overlook the rear yard, complete with an impressive sandstone block retaining wall and staircase leading to the upper garden area. The garden remains a blank canvas, inviting you to add your personal touch to create a truly unique outdoor space. Spacious and with 2.7 metre high ceilings, the master bedroom offers leafy vistas and French door access to the front balcony. It includes a dual walk-in robe and an ensuite with wall-hung vanity and a luxurious rain shower head. Experience comfort throughout with ducted air conditioning spanning two zones. The property also boasts side access, providing ample space for a boat and/or caravan. Schedule a viewing today and start living the coastal-country dream in Milton.
