If you are searching for an immaculately presented single level home privately nestled in a whisper quiet location surrounded by quality homes – this is it! There is nothing left to do but move in and enjoy. Manicured and low maintenance gardens surround this beautiful home that offers an oasis from busy living. Modern and attractive light filled spaces exude quality and meticulous eye for detail in a home that is both family friendly and a delight for the entertainer in you. The home offers 4 bedrooms, all with built in robes plus a study. The master suite enjoys a separate feel to the rest of the home and enjoys the convenience of an ensuite. A resort like feel resonates throughout and a choice of generous living areas beckon. A beautifully appointed kitchen with gas cooking is nestled within the open plan with easy access to both indoor and the very private and secluded outdoor covered living areas. All overlooking the easily maintained sparkling inground pool. Every modern convenience has been carefully considered. Just a sample of the extras includes double garage with internal access, professional attic storage with stairs, solar heated pool, ducted air conditioning, fully alarmed and garden shed storage. All this conveniently located close to shops, schools and transport. This is an opportunity not to be missed. We welcome your inspection.
