

37 Taloumbi Street, Maclean, NSW 2463

Sold House

Tuesday, 26 March 2024

37 Taloumbi Street, Maclean, NSW 2463

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 4

Area: 1012 m2

Type: House

Amy Betteridge
0488453434

Jenny Betteridge

$605,000

Situated in Maclean on a large 1012m² block with rear access to a single colorbond shed with an extension off one side, providing additional storage space. The backyard is fenced into two sections with well established trees and a huge private paved entertainment area, ideal for parties and family barbeques. There is also a double carport, where you can store a boat and trailer. But let us not forget about the modest split level home on offer with its freshly painted exterior. Offering 3 bedrooms and a bathroom on the upper level, with air-conditioning in the main bedroom, polished timber floors and built-in robes. On the lower level you will find a good size cedar timber kitchen with generous bench space that adjoins an air-conditioned dining room and lounge, that also feature polished timber floors and picture rails. The lounge room has sliding door access to the covered front verandah and at the rear of the home is a large air-conditioned sunroom overlooking the backyard. Underneath the home there is a single garage with remote entry, a great workshop area, laundry, plus a storage room and extra storage space. Centrally located just a short distance from the main street of Maclean in an elevated flood free position. This superb property offers loads of potential.