This exceptional residence presents a distinctive and adaptable layout ideally suited for both growing families and those in need of dual living arrangements. Featuring an impressive design, the primary section includes a master bedroom with a full ensuite, along with two additional bedrooms equipped with built-in robes and serviced by the main bathroom. The expansive fourth bedroom serves as an alternate master suite, complete with its private ensuite and direct access to a second kitchen, making it an ideal space for guests or extended family. Offering a total of four living spaces, including a spacious sunroom, this home ensures that everyone can enjoy their own designated areas. Notable amenities include ducted heating, evaporative cooling, a generous rear yard, and a carport for sheltered parking. Situated in close proximity to walking tracks, Karoo Primary, and Stud Park shopping centre, this residence is guaranteed to make a lasting impression.
