This beautifully restored 1950's home is positioned for ultimate convenience, close to the Prospect Vale shopping precinct along with schools, doctors, bus routes and all you need for easy living. Capturing all day sun, the property is light and warm. Step inside to discover a tastefully designed interior where the updates provide a blend of classic charm and modern style. The living room flows out to the spacious deck, partially undercover, including a fireplace for the ultimate entertaining atmosphere. The practicality of this home extends to its functional features as well. A single garage offers secure parking and storage options, while the small low maintenance yard ensures you spend more time enjoying your home rather than maintaining it. Additional off street parking adds to the convenience. In every aspect this property is exceptional, don't miss an opportunity to inspect, call today for a private inspection.
