Every now and then something extraordinary comes on the market, and this is one of those properties. This is a sea change, a lifestyle, a place you can catch King George from the beach meters from your back door step. A place so secluded you can go skinny dipping if you want on your own sandy beach stretching nearly a kilometre, and its surrounded by 84 acres of bush land on 1 title. Your neighbour is the Port Davenport conservation Park, and a beautiful lagoon full of birds, pelicans, swans, seabirds of all varieties. The property is surrounded by more bush blocks , that has tracks and trails, and is only a short drive from the town of Warooka.It comes with a private road access and the house is a 4 bedroom, 1 bathroom, open plan kitchen, dinning and lounge. It has utilities connected and very large shed with living quarters and a fish processing room. Come discovery the treasures scattered around the place old boats, tractors and such. This is the type of property you only see once in a life time so don't delay, call Andrew now on 0416 165 545.
