Situated in the beautiful Alpine town of Eskdale in the Mighty Mitta Valley, this great little home is perfect for the weekend getaway or to settle down away from the bustle of the city and live the quiet life. Only small in stature but big on features required for comfortable living, this home offers 2 bedrooms with large 2-way bathroom to the master and generous open living area including well-appointed kitchen, dining and lounge. Year-round comfort is assured with reverse cycle heating/cooling and very effective combustion wood heater while the 3Kw Solar system minimises the energy bills. The great sized lot of 1000m² (approx.) features well established gardens and lawns with a fully powered garage/workshop measuring 9m x 4m (approx.) with 9m x 3m carport. For the outdoor enthusiasts bushwalking, mountain bike riding, hunting and fishing the Mighty Mitta River are all only minutes away.
