With picture perfect street appeal and all the hallmarks of Queenslander living, this three - four bedroom house packs plenty of charm and has been freshly painted inside and out. Enter through the traditional front deck, into the large living and dining area with polished floors and soaring ceilings. The well-presented kitchen includes a stainless dishwasher, ample cupboard space, and a gas cooktop. With both a front and rear deck, there is no shortage of outdoor entertaining spaces in this picturesque home. The master bedroom features a huge ceiling fan, polished floors and air conditioning. The bathroom has all the traditional features with a claw foot bath, and stainless steel windows. Positioned on the fringe of the city with excellent transport, major hospitals and shopping close by, this cottage offers an enviable slice of inner-city life.
