

38 Alto Avenue, Seaforth, NSW 2092

Sold House

Wednesday, 31 January 2024

38 Alto Avenue, Seaforth, NSW 2092

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Justine Hallows

0419616596

Contact agent

Beyond the traditional frontage of this charming 1950s home lies a private family haven offering a sense of light, space and serenity, set on a double fronted block in one of Seaforth's best-loved streets. Bathed in north east sunshine, the beautifully proportioned single-storey home offers a flexible layout with four bedrooms and a free-flowing living space which is anchored by an open plan gas kitchen. French doors open out to a suntrap entertainer's terrace that captures the soothing breeze and a gorgeous established garden with an in-ground pool as its centrepiece. This timeless beauty is located in a perfect spot for families a stroll to North Balgowlah Public School, CBD buses and Manly Dam.* Charming facade and enclosed picturesque gardens for instant appeal* A liveable home, designed for young families and catering for entertainers* Four double bedrooms with built-ins, main opens to a private balcony* Free-flowing living area with a defined lounge and dining space* Open plan kitchen with gas cooktop, electric oven, Miele dishwasher, meals bar* Well-presented bathroom with bath and shower, laundry with w/c, hot & cold outdoor shower* French doors open to an all-season alfresco setting and sunny pool* Picket fence, enclosed child-friendly level lawns and landscaped gardens* Gas heating outlet, barbeque bayonet, blue gum timber floors* Carport, storeroom, and handy gated entry from Armstrong Street* Easy access to village shops, cafes, dining, plus harbour and surf beaches