Step back in time with a visit to this enchanting residence, a testament to the enduring beauty of classic design. An ideal abode for those with a fondness for old-world charm, this three-bedroom house exudes a warmth and character seldom found in modern homes. Upon arrival, the bull-nosed verandah sets a welcoming tone, inviting you to explore the spacious interior, where high ceilings and wide polished floorboards speak of a bygone era. Each of the generously proportioned bedrooms, offer enhancing period features, such as the original fireplaces and picture rails as well as modern touches such as built-in robes. The heart of the home is undoubtedly the grand lounge and dining area, complete with a roaring wood fire that promises cosy evenings during the cooler months. A separate sunroom or sitting area provides a tranquil retreat to unwind with a good book or a cup of tea. For the modern home chef, the kitchen has been thoughtfully updated with a gas cooktop, electric oven, and dishwasher, all while retaining its nostalgic appeal. This space seamlessly accommodates a second dining table and lounge, ensuring the kitchen remains the hub of the home. The property's practicality extends outside with a substantial garden, ideal for green thumbs and outdoor enthusiasts alike. The single lock-up garage and additional carport ensure ample parking. Situated on a generous 578 square metre parcel of land in Central East Orange, this home is a rare find.
