Nestled in sought-after New Town, this charming home, built around the 1950s, awaits its next fortunate owner. Its versatile appeal makes it an ideal choice for a wide range of buyers, whether you're stepping into the property market, have a passion for renovation, are seeking an investment opportunity, or are ready to enjoy your retirement. This property boasts single-level living with the flexibility of either three bedrooms or the option to create two bedrooms, granting you two distinct living areas. Original features are sprinkled throughout, preserving the character of the era. Off-street parking ensures your convenience, while a serene courtyard at the rear of the home adds a touch of tranquility to your living space. Whether you're inclined to move in right away or aspire to undertake a renovation project tailored to your personal tastes, this home presents an excellent chance to become a part of a highly desirable suburb. You'll find yourself just moments away from an array of essential services, including prestigious private schools, a hospital, a bustling shopping centre, and expansive sporting fields.
