A classic Federation façade is just the start with this stylishly appointed semi-detached house, that's been cleverly upgraded and designed to provide a generous living and entertaining environment. It features a fresh and character-filled layout, lots of natural light and an attractive floorplan for modern families, it also comes complete with a versatile garden studio or home office at the rear. The property is an absolute standout when it comes to lifestyle positioning and is set only moments to great coffee, the light rail, train station and Dulwich Hill's village hub. • An attractive double brick façade makes a great first impression • Warm, bright and inviting interiors feature many original details • A generous layout includes expansive lounge and dining areas • Quality modern kitchen with skylight and a casual dining zone • Fold-out doors that open onto a sheltered entertainer's deck • Private back garden plus air-conditioned studio/office/4th bed • Huge underhouse storerooms • An undercover patio plus a downstairs laundry with extra WC • In a wide street setting with plenty of parking for residents
