Sitting proudly in a quiet street is this beautiful period home, with all the grace of yesteryear, yet with modern features and conveniences of today's living. The original part of the home consists of three bedrooms, two with decorative fireplaces. Master suite with robes and ensuite. Second bathroom feature large shower. The formal lounge has an ornate mantle and exposed brick, adding warmth and character. The rear of the home has been extended allowing loads of natural light, and has incorporated a large kitchen/dining and living area. The country-feel timber kitchen good bench space, cupboards, electric oven and gas cook top. Glass French doors open out to a north facing timber deck overlooking the entire rear yard. Other features include dado boards, high ceilings and solar on the house to offset the brand new heating and cooling system and gas hot water. Outside is an approx. 930m² allotment with a double carport. Minutes to St John of God Hospital and Bendigo Stadium, and only 3kms to Bendigo CBD. This home is a must to inspect.
