

38 Denham Street, Surry Hills, NSW 2010

House For Sale

Thursday, 18 April 2024

spencer
servi&

38 Denham Street, Surry Hills, NSW 2010

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 2

Type: House

David Servi

0412961234

Contact Agent

This two level, two bedroom, two bathroom sandstone terrace features polished wooden floors and pedestrian rear lane access. Both bedrooms have built-ins. There is a large gas and stainless steel eat in kitchen. A very liveable home with scope to update and enhance. Tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac setting, this historic home stands within an easy walk of the CBD, the thriving St Margaret's food hub with Woolworths, wine bars, cafes, restaurants and the buzzing Bourke & Crown Street precincts. Just steps from the proud & historic Crown Street Public School, this sandstone terrace would suit professional couples, young families, downsizers, or astute investors. Public transport options abound and the green recreation spaces and sporting facilities of Centennial Parklands along with the Entertainment Quarter are close-by. Superb inner city location Classic inner Sydney sandstone terrace Positioned in a tightly-held enclave CBD, entertainment, transport & recreation all within walking distance Two bedrooms, master of huge proportions Spacious gas kitchen with stainless appliances & ample storage Upstairs bathroom – downstairs bathroom includes laundry Very liveable with scope to update and enhance.