38 Edward Street offers an attractive opportunity for first home buyers, investors, or those looking to downsize. Located in a prime spot next to the popular Sweetie Pies bakery and across from the local Glen Innes High School and showground, it provides convenience and potential community vibrancy. This aluminum-clad 2-bedroom home with a sleepout offers flexibility and additional space. Inside, the home features both gas and wood-fire heating options to keep you cozy in the cooler months. The kitchen is sizable with dining space and a gas cooktop, making it ideal for cooking and entertaining. The bedrooms are generously sized, and there's a large sleepout at the rear of the home, providing versatility for various needs. The bathroom is neat and tidy with a convenient walk-in shower. Outside, the property is fully fenced, offering privacy and security. A screened-in patio provides a comfortable outdoor space for relaxation. Additionally, the property includes two garden sheds for storage, along with a single car garage and carport, ensuring ample space for vehicles and tools. In summary, 38 Edward Street presents a well-equipped and comfortable home with various amenities to cater to different lifestyles. It's certainly worth inspecting for those interested in the property.
