Nestled in the heart of Auburn, New South Wales, sits an exceptional American-style double-story home, boasting a timeless double brick construction that exudes durability and classic charm. Occupying a generous 708 square meters of land, this residence stands as a testament to architectural excellence and meticulous attention to detail. As you approach the property, you're greeted by a picturesque facade that captures the essence of suburban elegance. The exterior, adorned with intricate details and a welcoming porch, sets the tone for the captivating features that await within. Ascending the staircase to the second level, you'll discover a sanctuary of comfort and privacy. The generously proportioned bedrooms offer a tranquil retreat, each appointed with built-in wardrobes and large windows that frame scenic views of the surrounding neighborhood.
