Middleton c1917 is an exquisite heritage home that cuts an elegant figure from the street with its captivating double fronted façade, enchanting garden and beautiful character design. This stunning Federation-style residence has been immaculately maintained, lovingly preserved and enhanced to provide a superb modern living space with flowing proportions and ultra-private outdoor areas for entertaining. It's also perfectly positioned to take full advantage of the vibrant inner-west lifestyle while offering easy access to renowned schools, parks, cafes, and transport options. High patterned ceilings throughout, picture rails and leadlight windows. Elegant formal lounge room and four original decorative fireplaces. Bright open casual living and dining area that leads to the outside. A family-sized pool and cabana in a tropical low-maintenance garden. Well-equipped gas kitchen, two bathrooms and an internal laundry. Four good-sized bedrooms & off-street parking. Walking distance to Canterbury Boys/Girls High and Trinity Grammar.
