$729,000 - $749,000 guide

Loved and lived in for over 40 years by the current owners, this flood-free East Lismore home is ready for its next generation of memories. Immaculately maintained, this spacious home features three bedrooms upstairs, multiple living zones and a huge, elevated rear deck - capturing wonderful views. Typical of the era, the high ceilings and timber floors are sure to impress, while the modern comforts of air conditioning, a walk in robe with direct access to the bathroom off the main bedroom, provide modern day convenience. To the rear is the covered, elevated rear deck, large enough for the biggest of family gatherings, also the perfect place to enjoy the scenic views overlooking the east Lismore Bowling Club and beyond. Down the internal stairs, the lower level is full of opportunity, with another large utility space, currently configured as an additional bedroom along with a large living area. A spacious bathroom is also on the lower level, providing opportunity for a teenagers retreat, a work from home space or guest accommodation. This space leads onto its own covered patio and both levels overlook the tranquil, leafy backyard. With a handy location, being only moments from schools, shopping, medical and recreational facilities, the home also has solar power to keep the running costs in check. To capture the true essence of this gorgeous property, an inspection in person is strongly encouraged to avoid disappointment.
