Nestled in a family-friendly pocket of Thornbury, this comfortable three bedroom mid-century home proudly awaits a new family keen to make the most of its spacious interiors and enviable lifestyle setting. This classic triple fronted home on a 757m² (approx.) corner allotment featuring huge corner windows that harness the northern light, delivers a lounge with a tapestry brick gas fireplace, sunlit dining room and solid timber eat-in kitchen overseeing manicured gardens that include a bungalow. Bedrooms with robes share a spotless central bathroom, a utility room incorporates laundry facilities and convenience continues with gas ducted heating, evaporative cooling and large garage with remote including storage. Ready to enjoy while presenting the clean lines that lend themselves well to modern enhancement/extension or a state-of-art redevelopment, STCA, this home puts astute buyers near well-regarded schools, local parks and transport while being enviably situated central to High Street and Fairfield Village.
