This spacious family home features beautiful designer interiors and an exceptional layout. With an indulgent parents suite on the ground floor and a further three spacious bedrooms upstairs, there's plenty of room for family to connect or retreat to their own space. There are a range of large and light living areas and an entertainer's kitchen which flows out onto the huge covered deck overlooking the diamond sparkle of the inground pool. Three designer bathrooms and a super stylish colour palette make this a very desirable residence. A huge outdoor entertaining precinct which includes dining, lounge and bar areas clustered around the swimming pool provide endless opportunities to relax with family and friends. With an extra long garage which includes drive through access to the rear yard as well as a single carport, this property has car accommodation well covered. Perfectly located just a short walk to local schools, shops and cafes and with quick access to Arndell College and Santa Sophia College in Box Hill.
