Positioned among the cane fields on Brushgrove Island sits this charming cottage. Recently bought back to life and renovated with care, the home features 4 bedrooms, a large open plan living, bathroom and laundry plus an external carport. A veranda at the front gives you an outdoor entertaining area and the grounds provide lots of room to enjoy your surrounds. From the timber floors, wood fire heater and classic French doors to the brand new air conditioning this home combines the old world character with the modern amenities.
