This immaculate home is perfect for anyone looking for that convenient lifestyle tree change! Surrounded by the stunning Bundaberg rural landscape this immaculate property sits on a beautiful and easy to manage 1000 sqm block and is only approximately 11 minutes to Bundaberg CBD. The beauty here is that you get to enjoy the peace and tranquility and escape the hustle and bustle of urban living and noisy neighbours but don't have the constant upkeep of a large acreage block so it's a perfect choice for those wanting to escape city living or even those downsizing from large acreage or farming property who are dreading the thought living in town but now that the time has come to have a more manageable and convenient lifestyle. What a lifestyle you'll enjoy in this immaculate 3 bedroom brick home. It's as neat as a pin inside and out and a super house proud owner has made it really simple for lucky buyers, just move in and enjoy! Features of this stunning home include :- Brick built on 1000 sqms with a domestic bore- 3 spacious bedrooms, the large main with split system air conditioning.- Tiled throughout, with modern styled ceiling fans- Generous sized open plan living dining area- Large Kitchen with plenty of storage gas stove & dishwasher overlooking the outdoor area.- Super neat bathroom with oversized shower and linen storage.- Security screens - Fantastic covered outdoor entertainment area to the rear overlooking the beautifully landscaped yard.- Additional Rainwater tank- Single carport to the front of the home - A large high clearance shed with great access to the rear that's perfect for the caravan, boat or any of the other toys that needs to be stored. This is a beautiful home, it looks amazing in the pictures and I can assure you it's even better in real life, if you're looking for that perfect base or just escaping city life then 385 Tantitha Road, Gooburrum is the perfect choice.
