Behind a distinctive and attractive Californian façade, this elevated family residence combines classic charm renovated for modern convenience and dynamic indoor-outdoor entertaining areas. A refined example of the irresistible Californian Bungalow style of the 1920's, this home is introduced by a terrazzo verandah and wide entry hall, its warm and inviting proportions reveal hallmark features such as decorative ceilings, wood panelling and lovely leadlight windows. Immediately inviting, its traditional sitting room features an open fireplace and extends to a handsome formal dining room, also with an open fire. A contemporary kitchen sits at the heart of the home, equipped with granite benchtops, excellent storage and a full suite of Miele appliances including induction cooktop, dishwasher and microwave. An informal dining area opens to the paved rear garden, ideal for seamless indoor-outdoor entertaining and family gatherings. At the rear an additional living space offers separate entry – perfect for a home office. There are two main bedrooms, one with walk in robes and ensuite, the other with a beautiful bay window and romantic built-in seating, a wall of built in robes and semi-ensuite access to a central bathroom. Both bathrooms and the laundry have been recently renovated in full, sympathetic to the style of the home and ideal for modern families. This home also features separate laundry and WC, ducted heating and cooling, video intercom entry, security camera, watertanks, double carport and additional off street parking space all behind a secure roller door. Irresistible original character and generous dimensions ensure a fabulous future for this well-loved family home, located amongst similarly grand 1920s residences. Close to parklands, Tooronga Shopping Centre, Gardiners Creek bike and walking paths and Auburn High School.
