Tucked away overlooking Raymond Court, this architect designed four bedroom two bathroom family town residence enjoys a fine sense of spacious elegance. Timeless with its herringbone parquetry timber flooring, decorative wainscoting and plantation shutters, this glorious home reveals broad entry with double doors to sought after downstairs bedroom or study (built in robes), beautiful lounge, superb open plan living and dining domain with defined zones and theatre capability (projector and pull down screen), sparkling white kitchen with Falcon Professional plus stove, powder room and mudroom style laundry with three access points. Upstairs showcases the extent of the impressive proportions with double doors from the large landing to the exceptional main bedroom suite (walk in robe and sensational spa ensuite), premier second bedroom suite (built in robes and luxe semi ensuite) and light filled third bedroom (built in robes). Two sets of sliding glass doors extend to sun splashed entertaining deck which enjoys a peaceful atmosphere within the seclusion of the north facing rear garden. Screened from the road by a series of Cypress pines, this super sized haven is enhanced with dual zone ducted heating/air conditioning, ducted vacuum, keyless entry, alarm, video intercom, prolific storage and double auto garage (rear roller door) accessed via Raymond Court. Only 5 minutes to the beach, metres to Dendy Park and the bus taking you to Haileybury College and St Leonard's College, walk to local shops and the train, while zoned for Moorabbin Primary School and Brighton Secondary College.
