"C.1880 BLUE STONE RETURN VERANDAH VILLA" – Grand and imposing character residence sited on a generous north facing allotment. Step into the timeless embrace of this enchanting Bluestone beauty, an immaculately updated return verandah villa that gracefully preserves the exquisite charm of its C.1880 heritage. One of the first homesteads built in Clarence Park and originally sprawling across multiple acres of farming land with a rich history, this home is undoubtedly a landmark for the local area. Nestled within the confines of a sprawling parcel, concealed behind an imposing brick front wall and electric gates, this residence offers not only a haven of privacy but expansive gardens and lawns for the family to enjoy or future additions to the solid foundations. The cherished and sought-after character elements have been meticulously maintained, culminating a stunning blend of contemporary appeal and historic detail like no other. Beautifully proportioned rooms allow for flexible configuration with original fireplaces, polished timber floors, high ceilings and impeccable period details.
