

39 Adams Road, Williamstown, SA 5351

House For Sale

Wednesday, 24 April 2024

39 Adams Road, Williamstown, SA 5351

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Area: 4046 m2

Type: House

Rohan Semmler

0885632599

$599,000 - 639,000

Set on a stunning one acre allotment, just minutes from the beautiful town of Williamstown, this 1910 renovated stone home is sure to appeal to those looking for something truly special. Perfectly positioned within walking distance to the main street while also providing easy access to Gawler and the Adelaide CBD, this wonderful home comprises 3 large bedrooms, a family bathroom and a spacious living area at the front of the home, complete with a roaring slow combustion heater and a split system air-conditioner, ensuring the home stays temperature controlled all year round. The beautiful renovation on this home gives the new owner the opportunity to simply move in, unpack and relax. The huge allotment provides an opportunity to further grow the existing shedding (9.06m x 7.89m with concrete flooring) and a separate building has endless possibilities including a teenager's retreat, studio or simply further storage. The gum studded rear of the block is would make an incredible entertaining space, perfect for hosting family and friends with a fire pit and a glass of Barossa Shiraz. Location wise, the property is perfectly positioned, within walking distance of the main street of beautiful Williamstown with two fantastic hotels, a school, bakery and a general store. The location also provides a myriad of options whether it be exploring Mount Crawford forest for weekend camping trips, accessing Gawler for additional shopping needs or a comfortable, scenic drive into the Adelaide CBD. If you've been looking for a renovated character home, on a huge allotment, close to everything but with established vegetation providing privacy and serenity, we've found your home – welcome to 39 Adams Road, Williamstown.