Contracted Prior to Auction Nestled on a spacious 760m² lot, this double brick 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom home enjoys an enviable location within a stone's throw of the bustling Elizabeth City Centre. Ideal for first-time buyers, growing families, and savvy investors, it promises both comfort and potential. Step through the expansive and well-maintained front yard, and you'll discover a residence crafted for effortless living. Three generously sized bedrooms, each with easy access to the central bathroom, ensure comfort and accessibility is a top priority. Adequate storage space throughout the home ensures a clutter-free and organized living environment. As a bonus, the property is outfitted with solar panels, guaranteeing not only a cozy living space but also an environmentally conscious one. The ample backyard beckons with its potential for your landscaping ideas, and that's not all, your very own rumpus room awaits at the rear. This versatile space can transform into a teenager's haven, a man cave, or simply provide essential storage. Adaptability is key. Beyond the joys of calling this place home, it's also a promising investment opportunity. Thanks to its prime location, sturdy double brick construction, sustainability features, and ample storage space, it holds remarkable potential. Embark on the journey to make this distinctive property your forever home or your astute investment choice. Your future is full of possibilities. Let's Make it Happen.
