Boasting an entertainer's layout and awe-inspiring views that are never to be built out, this magnificent home features a perfect due north aspect and sweeping panoramas across the bay and islands. Showcasing a quality build and fine craftsmanship, the house benefits from exceptional elevation and single-level living. Beautiful plantation shutters, 9ft ceilings and skylights enhance the natural light, sense of space, sea breezes and stunning outlooks, allowing them to fill the flowing interiors. Open and airy, the lounge and dining area extends seamlessly to the entertainer's deck for indoor/outdoor living and frames the impeccably appointed kitchen featuring a stone island bench, breakfast bar and Smeg appliances. The north-facing deck is an idyllic retreat with far-reaching views from Wellington Point to Manly and right across the bay, sandhills and King, Moreton and Peel Island. A captivating and ever-changing backdrop, you will love the sense of privacy as you watch the sun sparkle on the water and the boats and sea life sail by. There are four bedrooms (or three bedrooms and a media room). Parents can wake to sensational bay vistas from the master suite, boasting plantation shutters, a walk-in robe, an ensuite and a study nook. The other bedrooms include mirrored built-in robes and share the family bathroom, featuring a spa bath and a separate powder room. Additional features:- Smeg oven, steamer, induction cooktop and dishwasher- Wide hallways for a wheelchair and accessibility rails in the ensuite- Roll-down shade and privacy screens on the deck- Remote double garage; shaded driveway for extra parking- Garden courtyard with side access parking for a boat or caravan- Under-house storage area/workshop- Exceptional internal storage; attic storage with flooring and lights- Daikin 8-zone ducted A/C; ceiling fans; intercom; security screens- Double insulation in the roof, walls and garage- High-end 6.5kW solar panel system Nestled in a quiet street, this home is a leisurely stroll to the foreshore, walking/bike paths, William Taylor Memorial Sports Ground, Beth Boyd Park and Blue Tongue Pantry Café. Moments to Thorneside Village, Birkdale Fair, Birkdale State School, Redlands College and Thorneside station, this location offers the best of bayside and family living.
