Looking for inner Castlemaine land? This 811 sqm (approx.) block has come onto the market, presenting a fabulous opportunity to build your dream family home in this quiet court setting, mere moments from the town centre. Farnsworth Street is loved for its elevated position, overlooking the historic streetscapes of Castlemaine. Native gardens are a highlight here, tall gums bringing the birdlife and providing that instant private and settled feel. All town services are available to the block and the dimensions are fit for a range of plans or start researching design ideas that meet the specific needs and desires of your family. Buy into this well established and family friendly area, close to schools, shops, the Botanic Gardens and the train station with V/Line services to Melbourne and Bendigo. Castlemaine is also loved for its vibrant music scene, excellent eateries and friendly community. A rare opportunity - level block with stunning 180 degree views of Castlemaine. Inspect today and watch your vision make its mark on Farnsworth Street in 2024.
