Have you been seeking a country escape in quiet, peaceful surroundings? Set at the top of a no-through road with stunning views over the rooftops to the rolling green hills in the distance, this well-built residence sits on a massive 1,020m² block with side lane access and is the perfect place to call home. Surrounded by gorgeous established gardens front and rear, the home has been well-maintained over the years. From the moment you step into the north facing lounge, you will be captivated by the views out the large bay window. A balcony runs along the front of the home, giving you a perfect spot to enjoy your morning coffee in the sun. The kitchen is modern and neat with stainless steel appliances, plentiful cabinetry and a lovely outlook over the backyard. Two great sized bedrooms at the front are also north-facing with magnificent views to wake up to, plus a third bedroom at the rear all with built in robes, serviced by a central family bathroom with walk-in shower, bath and separate toilet. Heating and cooling is covered with a split system and ceiling fans to all rooms. Entertaining is a breeze with a huge covered deck, not to mention the enclosed sunroom providing a second living space to enjoy. The huge block is just over ¼ acre and offers a blank canvas for your dream garden, or build a massive shed with access from Stuart Street at the side. It doesn't stop there! An internal staircase leads to the generous double garage underneath with high clearance remote roller doors and space for two cars to park comfortably plus a separate secure store room and a second toilet. Properties on such a large block are a rare find in Korumburra, especially in such a quiet location and just a short stroll to the main street. This home is well worth your inspection – get in touch to organise your private inspection and check out the views for yourself. Looking to buy, sell or rent in South Gippsland?
