Its Addressed: A statement of style in a leafy Keysborough enclave, this comfortable residence promotes a life of ease for a family seeking convenience, placing its residents within a stroll of shops, parks and schools. Occupying a south-facing corner block on a quiet tree-lined street, the home's contemporary red-brick facade is warm and welcoming, revealing a flowing layout via the striking feature porch. Designed to maximise natural light and evoke relaxation, the open living/dining zone showcases calming warm tones and new timber flooring, overlooking the sophisticated stone kitchen with its 900mm Bosch appliances and roomy walk-in pantry. Merging with ease via frameless bi-fold doors, the peaceful entertainers' alfresco and neat low-maintenance backyard rest underneath a blanket of twinkling fairy lights, while the convenient powder room and internal garage access contribute to the home's thoughtful configuration. The sumptuous appeal continues upstairs with a versatile retreat, introducing three generous bedrooms and a family bathroom with a separate w/c. Especially notable, the serene master creates a soothing haven for busy parents with its modern dual vanity ensuite and walk-in robe, while finishing touches include ducted refrigerated air conditioning, high ceilings and blinds throughout. Popular for its family-friendly appeal and great amenities, Keysborough offers effortless day-to-day living, with this immaculate home sitting within a stroll of Keysborough Gardens Primary School, elite Sirius College and Keysborough South Shopping Centre. It's also within moments of Keysborough Secondary College, Parkmore Shopping Centre, Haileybury and Tattersson Park, while close to the Eastlink for seamless city commuting. With nothing left to do but relax, this is an excellent opportunity in a prized location. Contact Art on 0403 571 245 today for a priority inspection. There is an Art to buying.
