

39 Inverness Avenue, Penhurst, NSW 2222

Sold House

Wednesday, 21 February 2024

39 Inverness Avenue, Penhurst, NSW 2222

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 531 m2

Type: House

Jason Galic
0295807111

Fraser Glen
0295807111

Contact agent

Grand in proportions and impeccably presented throughout, this spacious double brick home epitomises contemporary family living at its finest. This modern residence delivers an idyllic lifestyle opportunity on a large and sunny 531sqm parcel of land. With five oversized bedrooms and an enormous basement level perfect for a man-cave, a wine cellar or extra storage room, this home has endless appeal for the growing family. The spacious kitchen offers modern appliances, oven and dishwasher, as well as stone benchtops, large pantry and ample storage space. Boasting plenty of room for the growing family with oversized everyday living and dining areas located directly off the kitchen flowing outside to the alfresco entertaining space and level grassed yard. An additional rumpus area and dining space located at the front of the home. Completing an already impressive package is a large basement area with spacious double garage plus additional storage space and a multipurpose area suitable for a home gym, wine cellar or potential hair salon. Key features include:

- Double brick construction with impressive street appeal.
- 531sqm block in sought after location.
- Five large bedrooms, complete with built in wardrobes, separate balcony off the main which also features an ensuite and walk-in wardrobe.
- Multiple living and dining areas featuring high ceilings and open plan living.
- Modern kitchen with s/steel appliances plenty of cupboard/bench space.
- Alfresco entertaining with barbecue overlooking the private and level grassed yard.
- Double garage with internal access & additional entry into basement.
- Basement level is perfect for extra storage space, wine cellar or potential hair salon/gym area.
- Ducted air-conditioning throughout.
- Home security and video surveillance system.
- Easy walk to Penshurst shops, cafes and train station.